St. Mary's Blankets—Ten Cases of Them

Wouldn't have much to talk about if these were simply the usual run of Country Blankets.

Ten, Eleven, Twelve and Thirteen Quarter Sizes.
This, they are not, as an inspection and comparison will make plain the fact that the St. Mary's Blankets run larger throughout every size—none being skimmed; are made of finer grades of specially prepared wool, possess a freedom from grease and burrs not to be found in others; display a superiority of finish that augments the natural softness of the fleeces employed, and exhibit a diversity of styles unlooked for in Country Blankets, the delicately tinted borders of which are absolutely unfadable.

GENUINE ST. MARY'S BLANKETS

Embodiment of the acme of excellence—the essence of perfection—best fitting productions of the most modern and improved machinery; Blankets, the fame and sale of which extends even beyond the borders of the United States.

So when we were offered the exclusive sale in Wheeling of these best of bed coverings, we quickly availed ourselves of the opportunity, and now offer them to you, reader, at Prices, New and Revised Prices!

Which we feel confident will be no higher than those charged for inferior makes.

A Fire Over the River.

The house and barn of Sylvanus Coffman, near Glenwood, O., was burned to the which were totally destroyed. Some household goods were saved. Loss,

$1,500; insurance not known.

riage licenses to the following named parties:

and Doreas Reinke, aged forty, a widow,

both natives of Germany and residents of Wheeling.

Transfers Recorded.

The following transfers of real estate

were recorded at Clerk Hook's office

yesterday:

October 8, by George Boyd, special

commissioner, to William and Elizabeth

A. Dist, for $3,472 15, a piece of land adjoining lands of John J. and A. R.

Jacob, and containing 59 acres, 2 rods

and 21 poles.

October 8, by Samuel Elder to Frank

Smith, for $400, part of lot 147, on Mc-

Colloch street, 18 feet 11 inches wide.

First of the Season.

The Mozart Singing Society will give

its first concert and ball of the season

on the evening of October 31, at Mozart hall, on the South Side. Among the local talent that will shine to advantage

on this occasion are Messrs. Will B.

Day, Charles Zulauff and Mrs. Flora B.

Williams. The Opera House orchestra

has been engaged and will furnish the instrumental music. The committee in charge intend to make the Mozart's first

a memorable social event.

A State Association.

The effort to organize a state protective association of the retail grocers

of West Virginia, undertaken by the Wheeling local association, has not ended in the success that the project

deserved, and the matter has been postponed until next spring, when the Wheeling people will go to work in earnest and endeavor to have a representative gathering of the grocers of the state present at the annual grocers'

day celebration.

A Long Session of Court.

There were twenty-two cases in the police court yesterday. George Woods, who fired three shots at Ed. Wilson, cutting the rim off his hat, was fined $1 and costs, and so was Wilson. Hugh Deviney was the only prisoner who went to the jail. Three men were let go to leave town, and the rest paid their fines. Josephine Boyd got $20 and costs for keeping a house of ill fame and three inmates $5 and costs each. She took an appeal. The court lasted till

11 a. m.

Their Golden Wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry K. List have sent out invitations for the celebration

on Monday evening, October 15, of the fiftieth anniversary of their marriage.

The hours will be from 7 to 11 p. m.,

and the reception will be at the family residence, No. 827 Main street. The cards are very artistic, the monogram

and years, 1844-1894, being embossed

in gold, and the lettering of the entire invitation being also in gold. The celebration will be one of the most notable

in the recent social history of Wheeling.

They Escaped Arrest.

Yesterday three men from over the river, driving a white horse hitched to a surrey, stopped in Mitchell's grove, south of St. Clairsville, now owned by Thomas Butcher, and began drinking a keg of beer and raising a racket. Mr.

Butcher asked them to leave, and they declared they wouldn't, so he went to town for the sheriff. The fellows got scared, and in a hurry to leave broke their shaft. They went through St.

Clairsville at a high rate of speed.

Sheriff Scott telephoned to the Bridgeport authorities.

A Former Wheeling Man's Success.

The Louisville Courier Journal in speaking of Will Castleman, formerly clerk at the Windsor hotel, and well known in social circles in this city, says:

Some of the Louisville professionals

who have tempted fortune in the metropolis are doing very well indeed.

One of these is "Billy" Castleman.

When he went into light opera much

was expected of him, but he has done

even better than that by the most anguine anticipated. He has been cast for the part in "Robin Hood," formerly taken by Edwin Hall, and will make his initial appearance in that role at New Haven next week.

That Joyful Feeling

With the exhilarating sense of renewed

health and strength and internal cleanliness, which follows the use of Syrup of Figs, is unknown to the few who have not progressed beyond the old time

medicines and the cheap substitutes

sometimes offered but never accepted

by the well informed.

COUNCIL COMMITTEES.

Four Called and Two Met—Claims

Against the City.

Last night the council committee on claims met to consider the claim for damages alleged to have been done to a house belonging to David P. O'Leary, on the north side of Henderson street, in the First ward, by a land slide due, as is charged, to the laying of a water main. Mr. O'Leary claims $290 damages. He was represented by J. J. Coniff and T. S. Riley, while City Solicitor White appeared for the city. Four neighbors were examined as to the facts, and the committee postponed further consideration of the matter until October 22.

Lewis A. Bowman's claim for $800 for damages alleged to have been done to his house on Caldwell's run by straightening that stream, was referred to the board of public works for report. Most of the committee seemed to think his property was improved by the change. Bills for $179.50 were ordered paid, on account of expenses for plans and records in the chancery cause of Mrs. Dominick Carey against the city.

A meeting of the committee on health was called to consider the sanitary condition of the creek, jointly with the Fulton board, but a quorum failed to show up and no meeting was held.

Herman Breikort was awarded the contract for whitewashing the upper market at his bid of $90. Bills for $6.75 were ordered paid.

The committee on petitions and remonstrances, which was to consider the applications of Grant & Jones for a saloon license, also failed to get a quorum.

A PLEASANT EVENT.

Professor Shockey Presented With Three

Beautiful Vases.

A very pleasing event took place at the Arion hall, on Twentieth street, last evening, in which Prof. Herman Shockey, the well known man of music, performed in the star role. The professor was decoyed there on the pretense that the Arion chorus needed his attention and a very pleasant evening was passed. About 10 o'clock Mr. F. Riester conducted Mr. Shockey to the parlors where many of the Arion members, together with representatives from the Beethoven and Mozart singing societies, were present. The unsuspecting professor didn't catch on until Mr. Riester advanced holding three beautiful vases, the product of the North Wheeling pottery, and in a few well chosen words presented them as a mark of appreciation of the local singers of the three societies named for the careful and efficient work of the professor in drilling them before their visit to the Toledo saengerfest, where the Wheeling singers made the best showing of any. Professor Shockey was taken completely by surprise, but with the readiness for which he is noted managed to express his gratitude and thanks.

In the Circuit Court.

In the circuit court yesterday, Judge Campbell on the bench, an order was made admitting the answer to an amended bill in the case of Isaac Smith vs. William McCormick et al.

In the case of Louis F. Stifel vs. Albert G. Boone et al., a decree was entered confirming the sale.

In the case of H. H. Watkins & Co., vs. Morris Schlossinger et al., a decree was entered distributing the proceeds.

The following were admitted to citizenship: Anton Klotzner, of Germany; Gustav Temple, of Germany; Andy Hores, of Germany; Fred G. Rapp, of Germany; Fritz Behrenshausen, of Germany; Peter Schaffer, of Germany; John Grogan, of Ireland; Thomas A. Wilson, of Scotland; Frederick A. Lith, of England; Harry Adams, of England.

University Extension Free Lecture.

Prof. Lyman P. Powell, a staff lecturer of the American society for the extension of university teaching, will lecture at Odd Fellows' hall to-night. The professor's specialty is history, and the subject of his lecture will be "Washington and Lincoln." If the way be clear and the people of Wheeling are willing to enjoy in their city the benefit of lectures such as students have at colleges and universities, the services of regular university teachers may be enjoyed this winter in the city.

Prof. Powell will explain the scheme to-night. The lecture is free, and all are invited to hear it.

A Crazy Man Locked Up.

Last evening Officers O'Brien and Driller arrested Peter McCann, on a warrant issued by Squire Gillespy, charging him with being insane. He was hauled to jail in the patrol wagon, demonstrating his insanity all the way by yelling and struggling. His hearing was set for Wednesday, before the justice. He has been causing trouble for some time.

Long Journey of a Murderer in Custody.

Yesterday two deputy U. S. marshals passed through the city, having in custody a prisoner who had been a U. S. soldier. He was arrested 700 miles beyond Boise City, Idaho, and was being taken to Washington City for trial on a charge of killing two comrades some time ago. He was lodged in jail here a short time while the officers took dinner and waited for a connecting train.

Carpenters' Tools Stolen.

Yesterday J. W. Rowell, a carpenter, complained to the police that somebody had broken into a house being built for Mr. Raper, on Eoff street, South Side, and broke open his tool chest and stolen two saws and other tools. He could furnish no clue.

THE LEADER will be closed on Wednesday on account of holiday.

WHAT THE HUB HAS DONE.

WHAT THE HUB HAS DONE.

Shout the glad tidings! We have toiled, tailored and triumphed, broken down prejudices, won confidences, gained a prestige to Ready-to-Wear Garments that places them before all, above everything, the acme of perfection, the quintessence of fashion, living examples of the economy and satisfaction of buying what you can see and try on rather than trusting to the FANCIFUL picture drawn by imaginative tailors. We have given dollars their greatest purchasing power, and the result: The people recognize our facilities, appreciate our excellencies, applaud our endeavors, patronize our offerings, and gratefully accept the saving our prices make.

WHAT THE HUB HAS DONE

Has made Wheeling a community noted for well dressed gentlemen. The opportunities are greater this season than ever, the stock larger, the variety better, the values richer, and the prices lower. The battle has been long and fierce, but custom tailoring has succumbed to the overpowering influence of our matchless stock.
